Possible reflection questions: (You do not need to answer every question every time. These are a guide to help you get started.) What new best practices techniques will I use because of my growth plan? How will I know the intended changes occurred (evidence)? What were the teaching successes and challenges of using the new technique? What type of student data or student work will I examine to provide insight into the next learning progression? How will I assess the effectiveness of the new teaching practice? How has my teaching practice changed because of the learning? How have these changes improved achievement levels of ALL students? Did I reach my goal? Why or why not? How have I collaborated with other colleagues regarding what I have learned?
