

PERSONNEL

CERTIFIED PERSONNEL – LEAVING CLASSROOMS UNATTENDED

Each teacher has responsibility for the students in the classroom. A student injury occurring when a classroom is left unattended by a certificated staff member may result in a tort case against the school. A critical time in classroom management also occurs when students are entering and leaving the room. Accordingly, teachers are expected to assume supervisory responsibilities for their students during the entire class period.