

PERSONNEL

CERTIFIED PERSONNEL – NOON DUTY AND/OR BUILDING SUPERVISION

Building principals are responsible to arrange for supervision of students in the halls and on the school grounds prior to the beginning of the school day, during the lunch period, and in the period following dismissal of classes for the day. Within duty hours teachers are required by the building principal to assume supervisory responsibilities of this nature. Each building principal shall rotate such assignments on an equitable basis among the members of the professional staff.