Section 2. Worker's Compensation:

Subd. 1. Upon the request of an employee who is absent from work as a result of a compensable injury under the provisions of the Worker's Compensation Act, the District will pay the difference between the compensation received pursuant to the Worker's Compensation Act by the employee and the employee's earned accrual of sick leave and/or vacation pay. In such event a deduction shall be made from the employee's accumulated vacation or sick leave accrual time according to the prorata portions of days of sick leave or vacation time which is used to supplement worker's compensation.

Subd. 2. Such payment shall be paid by the District to the employee only during the period of disability.

Subd. 1. A well child leave without pay of up to six (6) months may be granted by the District to an employee who is the biological, foster or adoptive parent in conjunction with the birth or placement for adoption or foster care of a child within the first year following birth or placement for adoption or foster care, subject to applicable state and federal laws.

If the leave is for more than twelve work weeks, the District will return the employee to the first vacancy within the job level the employee previously held in the unit and for which the employee is qualified. If no position is available when the employee is requesting to return from leave, the employee shall be placed on layoff and on the applicable recall list for the remainder of that school year. Upon conclusion of that specific school year, the employee may elect to invoke his/her bumping rights to a position based on seniority. If, during the leave, the District experiences a layoff that would have resulted in the layoff of the employee on leave, the employee shall not be entitled to reinstatement in the former or comparable position and shall be subject to the layoff and recall provisions of this agreement.

Subd. 6. Failure of an employee to return from leave pursuant to this section shall constitute a voluntary resignation of employment unless the District and the employee have mutually agreed to an extension of the leave.

Subd. 7. The parties agree that periods of time for which the employee is on well child leave shall not be counted in determining the completion of the probationary period.

Subd. 8. The employee who returns from well child leave within the provisions of this section shall retain all previous experience credit for pay purposes and any unused leave time accumulated under the provisions of this agreement. The employee shall not accrue

Subd. 4. Employees shall be granted one paid day, per bereavement, to be deducted from sick leave, to participate as a pallbearer (honorary or active) for a funeral. The Superintendent has the discretion to extend this subdivision for the funeral of a person who had a close personal relationship to the employee, but who was not a member of the person's immediate family. The Superintendent's discretion is not subject to the grievance procedure and will not be considered as precedent in other cases. This leave shall be prorated for employees who work less than full-time.

Section 6. Dependent Care Leave: An employee may be granted a noneconomic dependent care leave, at the sole discretion of the Superintendent or designee, for the purpose of providing home medical care or care to a hospitalized critically ill son, daughter, spouse or parent. Subd. 3. An employee must submit a written request for leave to the Superintendent or designee at least three working days prior to the start of the leave.

ARTICLE X GENERAL MATTERS

Section 1. Vacancies: When a position within this unit becomes vacant, it shall be posted on the official building bulletin board and by letter to the chief steward. Current employees who have successfully completed the probationary period and are not in lay-off status may apply for internal transfer consideration. Seniority, experience, training, and other qualifications will be considered when filling the position. Final determination for filling the vacancy shall be the responsibility of the administrative official involved. If the initial posting results in an internal transfer, the first resultant position opening will also be posted. Any further notifications or postings will be as determined by the appropriate administrative official.

Subd. 1. Title I paraprofessionals may move from one position at one school to a position at another school at the discretion of the L.E.A. based upon the needs of the school without regard to posting.

Section 2. Probationary Period: An employee under the provisions of this Agreement shall serve a probationary period of six (6) calendar months of continuous service in the District during which time the District shall have the unqualified right to suspend without pay, discharge or otherwise discipline such employee; and during this probationary period, the employee shall have no recourse to the grievance procedure, insofar as suspension, discharge or other discipline is concerned. Uniform shutdown periods in which the employee is not working shall not count towards the probationary period.

Section 3. Completion of Probationary Period: An employee who has completed the probationary period may be suspended without pay or discharged only for cause. An employee who has completed the probationary period and is suspended without pay or discharged shall have access to the grievance procedure.

Section 4. Seniority:

for such employee shall be determined by the last four digits of the employee's social security number and whichever is higher shall be deemed more senior.

Subd. 4. In the event it is necessary to eliminate a position(s) the employee(s) affected will be given no less than two weeks notice.

Subd. 5. In the event of a layoff, a reduction in days or hours, or the elimination of a position in any classification of employment, employees shall be laid off according to seniority in the inverse order of classification seniority.

Subd. 6. Seniority Bumping: In the event of a layoff, reduction in days or hours (reduction must be equal to or greater than 1 hour per day or 5 hours per week for the purpose of this subdivision), or the elimination of a position in a job level classification, a senior employee in that job level classification may exert employment rights over other employees in the same job level classification with less seniority, as follows:

First, the senior employee may exert the right to employment over the most junior employee in the same job level classification as the senior employee.

Secondly, if there is no junior employee in that job level classification, then the senior employee may exert the right to employment over the most junior employee in the next lower job level classification in which there is a junior employee.

Subd. 7. Indian Education Program. The seniority "bumping" rights provided for in this contract may be exercised only by Native American employees with respect to the District's Indian Education Program, subject to all applicable laws and regulations.

Subd. 8. Recall: When a position needs to be filled, it shall be posted and possibly occupied by an employee within the employment category, in accordance with Article X, Section 1, Vacancies. The parties may mutually agree to waive the posting requirement under Article X, Section 1, on a case-by-case basis. If a vacant position is not filled by internal transfer or the posting requirement has been waived, qualified employees on layoff shall be reemployed in inverse order of layoff prior to filling the initial position or any resultant positions from a general public applicant. Where possible such reemployment shall be substantially equal to the previous position occupied by the person and in all instances he/she must be qualified to fill the vacant position. Failure of the person to respond within ten (10) business days, of notice of reemployment shall eliminate any claim to reinstatement. Reinstatement rights shall cease one year from date of layoff or upon rejection of re-employment to a position that is within one hour per day of the previous position occupied by the person; whichever occurs first. An employee who has been laid off shall have the responsibility of filing her/his latest address with the business office.

Subd. 9. An employee shall lose seniority standing upon voluntary resignation from the District or for dismissal for cause.

Subd. 10. Instances of involuntary transfer from one employment category to another, as set forth in Subd. 2 of this section, an employee shall not lose seniority standing.

Employees are entitled to representation of their choice at the hearing.

Section 7. Employee Reprimand: An employee who has successfully completed the probationary period shall be entitled to have a representative of MSEA present when being reprimanded, warned, or disciplined for any infraction of policies, rules, regulations, or delinquencies in job performance whenever such action will result in a record being placed in the employee's personnel file. Copies of any materials placed in an employee's personnel file shall be provided the employee by the supervisor or other appropriate administrative officer. An employee shall be entitled to have a written response included therein. When an employee makes a request for representation, no official action shall be taken until such a representative is present. Such sick leave buy back shall be equal to the number of full time equivalent eight hour days (accrued sick leave hours divided by 8) of accumulated sick leave multiplied by fifty dollars ($50.00) for each day.

Subd. 3. Post Employment Health Care Savings Plan (HCSP): Employees are eligible to participate in the Minnesota Post Employment Health Care Savings Plan (HCSP) established under Minnesota Statutes, §352.98 and as outlined in the Minnesota State Retirement System's Trust and Plan Documents. Section 3. Limitation: Under no circumstances will the lifetime contribution for any one employee exceed $25,000.

Beginning July 1, 2006, the amounts contributed by the district as the employer match will reduce benefits payable under ARTICLE X, Section 10 – Sick Leave Buy Back, in an amount equal to cumulative employer contributions under ARTICLE XII, Section 2.

DEFINITIONS.

Bureau. “Bureau” means the Bureau of Mediation Services.

Days. “Days” means calendar days.

Employee. “Employee” means any public employee who is employed in a position that is part of an appropriate unit for which an exclusive representative has been certified under Minnesota Statutes, section 179A.12.

Grievance. “Grievance” means a dispute or disagreement regarding the application or interpretation of any term of a contract required under Minnesota Statutes, section 179A.20, subdivision 1.

Service. “Service” means personal delivery or service by the United States Postal Service, postage prepaid and addressed to the individual or organization at its last known mailing address. Service is effective upon deposit with the United States Postal Service, as evidenced by a postmark or dated receipt, or upon personal delivery.

COMPUTATION OF TIME.

In computing any period of time prescribed herein, the day or act or event upon which a period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the time period shall be included unless it is a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

STEP ONE.

When an employee or group of employees represented by an exclusive representative has a grievance, the employee or an agent of the exclusive representative shall attempt to resolve the matter with the employee’s immediate supervisor within 21 days after the employee, through the use of reasonable diligence, should have had knowledge of the event or act giving rise to the grievance. The supervisor shall then attempt to resolve the matter and shall respond in writing to the grievant and the agent of the exclusive representative within five days after the grievance is presented.

STEP TWO.

If the supervisor has not been able to resolve the grievance or has not responded in writing within the time period provided in step one, a written grievance may be served on the next appropriate level of supervision by the exclusive representative. The written grievance shall provide a concise statement outlining the nature of the grievance, the provisions of the contract or the just cause situation in dispute, and a statement of the relief or remedy requested. The written grievance must be served on the employer's representative within 15 days after the immediate supervisor's response was due under step one. The employer's representative shall meet with the agent of the exclusive representative within five days after service of the written grievance and both parties shall attempt to resolve the grievance. The employer's representative shall serve a written response to the grievance on the agent of the exclusive representative within five days of the meeting. The response shall contain a concise statement of the employer's position on the grievance and the remedy or relief the employer is willing to provide, if any.

STEP THREE.

If the grievance is not resolved under step two, the exclusive representative may serve the written grievance upon the chief administrative agent of the employer or that person's designated representative within ten days after the written response required by step two was due. An agent of the exclusive representative shall meet with the chief administrative officer or designee within five days of service of the written grievance and they shall attempt to resolve the matter. The chief administrative officer or designee shall serve a written response to the grievance on the agent of the exclusive representative within five days of the meeting.

ARBITRATION.

Referral to arbitration. If the response of the chief administrative officer or designee is not received within the period provided in step three or is not satisfactory, the exclusive representative may serve written notice on the employer of its intent to refer the case to arbitration within ten days after the response required by step three is due.

Selection of arbitrator. Within ten days of the service of written notice of intent to arbitrate, the employer's chief administrative officer or designee shall consult with the agent of the exclusive representative and endeavor to mutually agree upon an arbitrator to hear and decide the grievance. If the parties do not agree upon the selection of an arbitrator, either party may request a list of impartial arbitrators from the bureau. The parties shall alternately strike names from a list of seven names to be provided by the bureau until only one name remains, and the remaining name shall be the designated arbitrator. The determination of which party will commence the striking process shall be made by mutual agreement or a flip of a coin. If one party refuses to strike names from the list provided by the bureau, the other party may serve written notice of this fact upon the bureau, with a copy to the offending party. Unless it is confirmed that the parties have otherwise selected or agreed upon an arbitrator within three days of service of the notice of refusal or failure to strike names, the bureau shall designate one name from the list previously provided to the parties and the person so designated by the bureau shall have full power to act as the arbitrator of the grievance.

Arbitrator's authority. The arbitrator shall have no authority to amend, modify, add to, or subtract from the terms of an existing contract. The decision and award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon both parties.

Arbitration expenses. The employer and the exclusive representative shall share equally the arbitrator's fees and necessary expenses. Cancellation fees shall be paid by the party requesting the cancellation and any fees incurred as the result of a request for clarification shall be paid by the party requesting the clarification. Each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses.

Transcripts and briefs. Because arbitration is intended to provide a simple, speedy alternative to litigation processes, the use of transcripts and briefs should be considered only in exceptional circumstances. If a verbatim record is required, it may be prepared providing the party desiring the record pays the cost and makes a copy available to the other party and the arbitrator without charge. The arbitrator may maintain written notes of the hearing and may use an electronic recording device to supplement the note taking. These notes shall be considered the arbitrator's private and personal property and shall not be made available to the parties or another third party. If a recording device is used by the arbitrator to supplement the arbitrator's notes, the arbitrator shall retain the recording for a period of 90 days following the issuance of the award.

PROCESSING OF GRIEVANCES.

Release time. To the fullest extent feasible, the processing of grievances shall be conducted during the normal business hours of the employer. Employees designated by the exclusive representative shall be released from work without loss of regular nonovertime earnings as a result of their necessary participation in meetings or hearings held pursuant to this procedure, whenever such release is consistent with the ability of the employer to conduct safe and reasonable operations. No more than three employees shall be entitled to compensation for participation in a single meeting or hearing with respect to any one grievance.

Waiver of steps. The parties may by written mutual agreement waive participation in the grievance steps and may similarly agree to extend the time limits.

Time limits. A failure to raise a grievance within the time limits specified, or to initiate action at the next step of the procedure within the time limits in these parts shall result in forfeiture by the exclusive representative of the right to pursue the grievance. A failure of an employer representative to comply with the time periods and procedures shall require mandatory alleviation of the grievance as requested in the last statement by the exclusive representative.
