GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Application

This grievance procedure shall be applicable whenever a public employer and the Exclusive Representative of public employees cannot reach agreement on a grievance procedure as required by Minnesota Statutes, Section 179.70, Subdivision 1.

Definitions

Grievance: “Grievance” means a dispute or disagreement as to the interpretation or application of any term or terms of any contract required under Minnesota Statutes, Section 179.70, Subdivision 1.

Days: “Days” mean calendar days excluding Saturday, Sunday, and legal holidays as defined by Minnesota Statutes.

Service: “Service” means personal service or by certified mail.

Reduced to Writing: “Reduced to Writing” means a concise statement outlining the nature of the grievance, the provision(s) of the contract in dispute, and the relief requested.

Small Group of Employees: “Small Group of Employees” means a group of employees consisting of five (5) or less.

Answer: “Answer” means a concise response outlining the employer’s position on the grievance.

Step I.

Whenever any employee or small group of employees have a grievance, he or they shall meet on an informal basis with the employee’s or employees’ immediate supervisor in an attempt to resolve the grievance within twenty (20) days after the grievance occurred or twenty (20) days after the employee(s), through the use of reasonable diligence, should have had knowledge of the occurrence that gave rise to the grievance. If the grievance is not resolved within fifteen (15) days of the first informal meeting, the grievance may be reduced to writing by the Exclusive Representative and served upon the public employer’s designate (see Step II). Service must be made within fifteen (15) days of the last informal meeting. The employer shall, within five (5) days of receipt of the written grievance, serve his answer upon the Exclusive Representative. In the event the Exclusive Representative refuses to process the grievance, the employee(s) may proceed with the grievance and if he so chooses, may select a designee to represent him.

If the grievance involves and affects more than five (5) employees, the grievance may be reduced to writing by the Exclusive Representative (or the employees of their designated representative in the event the Exclusive Representative has declined to proceed with the grievance) and must be served upon the employer within twenty (20) days after the grievance occurred or twenty (20) days after the grievants, through the use of reasonable diligence, should have had knowledge of the occurrence that gave rise to the grievance. The employee shall within five (5) days serve his answer upon the exclusive representative (or in the appropriate case, employee(s) or their designee).

Step II.

The employer's representative shall meet with the Exclusive Representative (or in the appropriate case, employee(s) or their designee) within seven (7) days after receipt of the written grievance. The parties shall endeavor to mutually resolve the grievance. If a resolution of the grievance results, the terms of that resolution shall be written on or attached to the grievance and shall be signed by all parties. If no agreement is reached within fifteen (15) days of the first Step II meeting, the Exclusive Representative (or in the appropriate case, employee(s) or their designee), if he elects to proceed with the grievance, must proceed with Step III by serving a proper notification on the appropriate Step III official(s). The notification shall contain a concise statement indicating the intention of the party to proceed with the grievance, an outline of the grievance, the provision(s) of the contract in dispute, and the relief requested.

Step III.

The employer, its chief administrator, or its special representative shall meet with the designated official of the Exclusive Representative (or in the appropriate case, employee(s) or their designee), within ten (10) days after receiving notice of intention to proceed with the grievance pursuant to Step II. If resolution of the grievance results, the parties shall reduce the resolution to writing and design the memorandum as provided in Step II. If the parties are unable to reach agreement within ten (10) days after the first Step III meeting, either party may request arbitration by serving a written notice on the other party of their intention to proceed with arbitration.

If a grievance procedure is provided by a system of civil service or other such body, the exclusive representative or employee(s) must elect either to process the grievance through this procedure or the civil service's or other such body's procedure, and in no event may a grievant avail himself of both procedures.

Step IV.

The employer and the employee representative shall endeavor to select a mutually acceptable arbitrator to hear and decide the grievance. If the employer and the employee representative are unable to agree on an arbitrator, they may request from the Director of the Bureau of Mediation Services, State of Minnesota, a list of five (5) names. The list maintained by the Director of the Bureau of Mediation Services shall be made up of qualified arbitrators who have submitted an application to the Bureau. The parties shall alternately strike names from the list of five (5) arbitrators until only one (1) name remains. The remaining arbitrator shall hear and decide the grievance. If the parties are unable to agree on who shall strike the first name, the question shall be decided by a flip of the coin. Each party; shall be responsible for equally compensating the arbitrator for his fee and necessary expense.

The arbitrator shall not have the power to add, to subtract from, or to modify in any way the terms of the existing contract.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on all parties to the dispute unless the decision violates any provision of the laws of Minnesota or rules or regulations promulgated thereunder, or municipal charters or ordinances or resolutions enacted pursuant thereto, or which causes a penalty to be incurred thereunder. The decision shall be issued to the parties by the arbitrator, and a copy shall be filed with the Bureau of Mediation Services, State of Minnesota.

Processing of all grievances shall be during the normal workday whenever possible, and employees shall not lose wages due to their necessary participation. For purposes of this paragraph, employees entitled to wages during their necessary participation in the grievance proceeding are as follows:

- a. The number of employees equal to the number of persons participating in the grievance proceeding on behalf of the public employer; or
- b. If the number of persons participating on behalf of the public employer is less than three employees may still participate in the proceedings without loss of wages.

The parties, by mutual written agreement, may waive any step and extend any time limits in a grievance procedure. However, failure to adhere to the time limits may result in a forfeit of the grievance, or, in the case of the employer, require mandatory alleviation of the grievance as outlined in the last statement by the exclusive representative or employee.

The provisions of this grievance procedure shall be severable, and if any provision or paragraph thereof or application of any such provision or paragraph under any circumstances is held invalid, it shall not affect any other provision or paragraph of this grievance procedure or the application of any provision or paragraph thereof under different circumstances.
