

Bemidji Area Schools World Language Objectives German I

German I offers a basic introduction to the German language and culture. Listening, speaking, reading and writing are taught with special emphasis on listening to the sound of the language and making the effort of speaking it. Cultural background of the German-speaking people and country is also presented through films, slides, songs and games. A progression of grammatical structures is also presented in order to set the scene for the conversation that follows.
