

FOOD SERVICE
CATERING

The Food Service Coordinator and Business Director can enter into catering activities related to school activities or advisory groups. Some typical activities include but are not limited to athletic banquets, advisory luncheon, tailgate activities, and meetings. The catering activities of each fiscal year shall be self-sufficient. All food, non-food and labor costs shall be charged to a catering account.