

Horace May Parent Classroom Input Form

Parents, teachers and administration all play a role in making class assignments. The decision on what classroom to assign our students to is one we take very seriously. There are several factors that will come into play when making this decision. You are invited to participate in this process by filling out this form and submitting it to the office prior to Monday, May 22, 2020. We value your knowledge regarding your child and together we will strive to make the best educational decisions for your child. Please complete a separate form for each of your children. Please express your request with a positive and educationally based description.
