

21st Century Community Learning Centers Logic Model

Strategies and Activities	Short Term Outcomes (1 – 2 years)	Intermediate Outcomes (3 – 6 years)	Long Term Outcome (6 or more years)
Strategy 1: Engage in Collaboration and Partnerships  Activity 1.1: Establish new and maintain existing partnerships.  Activity 1.2: Establish and maintain a grant advisory group.  Activity 1.3: Provide joint staff training and professional development opportunities.  Activity 1.4: Leverage other federal, state and local programs. Strategy 2: Offer High-Quality Afterschool Programming Year-Round  Activity 2.1: Provide high-quality academic enrichment programs.  Activity 2.2: Provide high-quality enrichment programs.  Activity 2.3: Establish and maintain youth leadership/advisory processes.  Activity 2.4: Provide family literacy and related educational services. Strategy 3: Use Data to Inform and Improve Programs  Activity 3.1: Collect participant data needed for reporting and evaluation.  Activity 3.2: Collect program implementation data needed for reporting and improvement.  Activity 3.3: Engage in annual continuous program improvement processes and practices.  Activity 3.4: Disseminate accomplishments and lessons learned.	Grantees have sound fiscal, programmatic and administrative policies and procedures in place. Grantees, their partners and advisory group members (including youth and families) share a common mission and goals for the program. Grantees implement the program as designed and meet the targeted number of hours of operation for each center. Grantees serve the students and families identified as most in need of support in grant application. Grantees offer enrichment activities that are intentionally designed and meet the needs and interests of participating students. Grantees offer academic enrichment activities that complements, but does not replicate, school day instruction. Grantees demonstrate a commitment to data-informed practices that support program effectiveness and improvement.	Increased number of programs creating safe and supportive environments that meet the needs of youth and families. Increased implementation of evidence-based programs that challenge youth academically and develop skills for success in college and career. Increased number of opportunities for youth, families and community members to be meaningfully engaged in programs. Increased implementation of programs that support parental involvement and literacy for adult family members of youth participants.	Increased access to high-quality afterschool programs. Improved academic performance among historically underserved students. Increased levels of community collaboration and support in planning, implementing and sustaining expanded learning programs.